ABOUT ME

When it comes to assisting clients, customers or collaborating with team members, I succeed on making a positive impression and creating a favourable impact.

I love coordinating efforts and creating a collaborative environment. Adapting to new surroundings is something I do fast.

What fuels me is the eagerness to learn new stuff, as I enjoy the process of it, and using that new knowledge to solve problems.

I am commited to being punctual, never running behind schedule. I take my responsibilities seriously and am committed to both personal and professional growth.

In a couple of words, I am teachable, quick, punctual, collaborative, assistive and adaptable.
